

Coast Guard, Salvage Boats Try To Corral 15-Mile Oil Slick

GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — Oil spilled freely into the Gulf of Mexico without being consumed by flames today after firefighters controlled the engine-room blaze that turned the supertanker Mega Borg into a smoky, listing hulk. Salvage boats and Coast Guard ships skimmed the water and used floating barriers to try to corral a slick estimated early today at 15 miles long and 600 yards wide, up from 13 miles long on Tuesday, the Coast Guard said.

On Tuesday, firefighters spraying water on the searing deck boarded the ship and declared the fire controlled nearly four days after the first of a series of explosions ripped through the vessel 57 miles southeast of Galveston.

Soviets Ease Blockade On Lithuania

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government has agreed to restore some fuel and raw material supplies to Lithuania, easing the embargo imposed two months ago to force the republic to drop its declaration of independence, Tass said today.

"We have no doubts the economic blockade will be lifted," Lithuanian Prime Minister Kazimiera Prunskiene said after a meeting in the Kremlin with Soviet Prime Minister Nikolai Ryzhkov, the Soviet news agency reported.

Prunskiene said she had already reached an agreement with Ryzhkov on a partial increase of the supply of natural gas and raw materials to some enterprises in the republic, Tass said.

She also said the Soviet government intends to review the question of renewing the supply of fuel for Lithuanian agriculture.

On Tuesday, President Mikhail S. Gorbachev met with the presidents of Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia after refusing for weeks to negotiate with the secessionist Baltic republics unless they agreed to abide by the Soviet constitution. President Vytautas Landsbergis of Lithuania hinted then that the Kremlin might soon end the economic embargo imposed on his republic.

Ryzhkov, who attended the session, said earlier today it produced definite progress on the impasse over the Baltic states' independence declarations.

He said at the time that if the Baltic republics accepted the Kremlin proposal that they suspend their independence moves and begin negotiations, "great possibilities for future talks will be opened."

Gorbachev stopped shipments of all oil, most natural gas and other raw materials to Lithuania on April 18 to pressure the republic into rescinding pro-independence laws.

Lithuania had said it was willing to negotiate on rolling back those laws but steadfastly has refused to revoke its declaration of independence.

The United States became involved in the standoff when lawmakers in Congress suggested they would not approve a trade pact signed during the superpower summit until Gorbachev opened negotiations with the Baltic republics and lifted the economic embargo he imposed on Lithuania.

The trade pact is important because it could clear the way for the United States to grant most-favored-nation trade status to the Soviet Union, a benefit that could help Gorbachev in his efforts to reform the nation's economy.

Congress has indicated it will not stand in the way of the Bush administration granting the improved trading status once the trade pact is approved and the Soviets pass laws guaranteeing Jews the right to emigrate.

Ryzhkov and Mrs. Prunskiene today discussed conditions for lifting the economic sanctions, Tass said.

It quoted Mrs. Prunskiene as saying her republic would carefully discuss the question of freezing the declaration of independence for the duration of negotiations with the Soviet government.

FBI Agent Sentenced To 16 Years For Killing Woman

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A FBI agent solved a year-old homicide by confessing he strangled a pregnant woman with whom he had been having an affair.

Mark Putnam, 30, of Sunrise, Fla., was sentenced Tuesday to 16 years in prison after pleading guilty to manslaughter. His confession allowed authorities to find the remains of Susan Daniels Smith off a coal mine road in the eastern Kentucky hills.

Putnam, who had used Ms. Smith as an informant in a bank robbery and auto theft case, is believed to be the first agent in FBI history charged or convicted of a homicide-related crime.

Ms. Smith's family condemned the plea bargain because Putnam did not stand trial for murder. A sister of the victim was cited for trying to bring a concealed .38-caliber handgun into court before the agent's appearance.

Commonwealth's Attorney John Paul Runyon said that without Putnam's June 4 confession, "we had absolutely no evidence."
